REPORT ON DISTRIBUTION OF BOOKS

INTRODUCTION

Pro-link Organization is a non governmental organization that seeks to ensure equitable development for rural and urban poor especially women and girls established in 1993 and registered under the companies' code 1963, Act 179.

In February this year Pro-link took delivery of books from VCD/Ewald Bauman Foundation which also included some reading books for the Pro-link Resource centre library and some other books to be distributed to schools within Hohoe District where Pro-link already has Reproductive Health clubs.

The main objectives were;

- To furnish Pro-link Resource Centre Library with reading books for use by school children, Community Based Organizations and community members
- To provide five selected schools in the Hohoe District with books for use by the students.

BENEFICIARY GROUPS

- Pro-link Resource Centre Library
- E.P. Primary 'A'
- St Theresa's Demonstration Primary
- Sankis Preparatory
- E,P, Secondary School

Resource Centre Library

The library of the centre has been furnished with the books donated by VCD. Below are pictures of the library furnished with books.

Presentation of Books to schools

Five schools in the Hohoe district were presented with books during the recent launch of the Resource Centre by Municipal Chief Executive of the Hohoe Municipal Assembly. The headmasters of the schools received the books on behalf of the students after which the books were presented to the students for use.

St. Theresa's Demonstration Primary

Outcomes

Students are now motivated and encouraged to read.

Users of Pro-link Resource Centre have books to read at the centre.

Conclusion

Pro-link Organization, Student beneficiaries, Traditional Authorities and the Municipal Assembly in the Hohoe Municipal are very grateful to VCD/Ewald Bauman Foundation for this kind gesture.

We will also ensure that students and other beneficiaries will put into good use the books presented them which will go a long way to broaden their horizon and also bring benefit to the community.

Once again thank you very much for this support.
